New for 2024

The Egbert Gaye Dare To Make A Difference Award

In an effort to honour the legacy of Egbert Gaye, the founding managing editor of Montreal Community Contact, this award looks to recognize an individual or media outlet that has spearheaded a positive difference in their community.

Whether it involved a simple story, a special project, a creative campaign or a turn of events that was sparked by the newspaper, this award aims to showcase how local media can be an inspiring champion for change and make a meaningful difference in their communities.

As the founder of Montreal's only newspaper serving the Black and Caribbean community, Egbert succeeded in giving his community a collective voice and became known for his fearless advocacy, philanthropy, and kindness toward others. Following his death in June 2023, the QCNA board of directors voted to honour his memory by creating this award, with the hope that it will inspire others to dare to make a difference in their own ways.

The winner will be determined by the judges of categories A6 & A7

*Submit your nominee online - Word doc, text file or PDF formats. Under 'Submit Entry' choose division 'Special Awards.' Under 'category' choose The Egbert Gaye Dare to Make A Difference Award.
